

The 2nd day of this Congress was opened by some demonstrations on the snow. Patrollers from all around the world compared their rescue methods by showing the use of the emergency material, so everyone had the opportunity to improve his technique. These are some pictures that better represent the collaboration between the people who took part to this event.